DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant elected Group I in the reply filed on September 15, 2005. Claims 2-4 are withdrawn from further consideration.

Claims Pending

Claims 1-4 are pending. Claim 1 is examined.

New Matter

The amendment filed January 17, 2006 is objected to under 35 U.S.C. 132(a) because it introduces new matter into the disclosure. 35 U.S.C. 132(a) states that no amendment shall introduce new matter into the disclosure of the invention. The added material, which is not supported by the original disclosure is as follows: "at a temperature below" and "particle size of 40 mesh to 80 mesh." Such alterations are new matter because they are changing the scope of what was originally taught in the specification.

It is noted to Applicant that Applicant made amendment to the specification to replace amended paragraph [0021]. However, there is nothing to replace [0021]. Applicant could mean [0022].

Applicant is required to cancel the new matter in the reply to this Office Action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

The recitations "at a temperature between 25°C" and "particle size of 40 mesh to 80 mesh" are considered new matter because the information is not found in the specification as originally filed.

Summary

No claim is allowed.
